Honorable James G. Fulton
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Jim:

I want to thank you for your kindness in inserting in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of 24 January 1961 the speech delivered by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield on the occasion of the first day ceremony of the John Foster Dulles memorial postage stamp and your thoughtfulness in forwarding copies of the RECORD to me. Also, I deeply appreciate your note of congratulations on my reappointment as Director of Central Intelligence.

Such kindnesses on the part of friends add to my enjoyment of service to the Government.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
